Active & Passive Voice

Use of Passive:

- Passive voice is used when the focus is on the action. It is not important or not known, however, who or what is performing the action.
- Sometimes a statement in passive is more polite than active voice

Form of Passive:

Subject (the Object in active) + finite form of to be + Past Participle (3rd column of irregular verbs) + Object (the Subject in active).

When rewriting active sentences in passive voice, note the following:

- the object of the active sentence becomes the subject of the passive sentence
- the finite form of the verb is changed (to be + past participle)
- the subject of the active sentence becomes the object of the passive sentence (or is dropped)

How to ask a question

“Wh” question:

Wh + Auxiliary + Subject + Verb?

- If the auxiliary exist we don't change the tense of the verb.
- If the auxiliary doesn't exist we use the infinitive of the verb.

Example:

The lion eats the meats. (Subject, verb, object)

- What eats the meats? (subject) (we replace the subject by “Wh”)
- What does the lion do? (verb)
- What does the lion eat? (Object)
